REMEMBRANCE RUN 2022

August 13-14, 2022

From Delmar Stevens: "When my grandpa (Togo) Frank Quinn was 8 yrs old, he was taken from his Yerington Paiute family, by the government and forced to become a resident at the Stewart Indian School in Carson City, Nevada. He rebelled. He ran, trekking 50 miles to return home to his people. And the government came again. And Frank ran home. Three times, Frank was taken, and three times he escaped, till they finally stopped chasing him. Delmar's son Kutoven has been running since he was 4 years old, and in 2021, upon hearing of the 215 graves at the Kamloops school in Canada, he decided to run in Frank's footsteps, and the first Remembrance Run was born. This year Ku runs from Yerington back to Stewart, to hear from representatives about the progress of the government investigation into boarding school sites in the US. He invites you to join him.

The Stevens family invites you to the Remembrance Run, a 50 mile journey from the Yerington Paiute Reservation to the Stewart Indian Museum, to honor the children who survived Indian boarding schools and to remember those who never came home.

We welcome your stories at the mountain camp, very aware that remembering and speaking of these experiences is difficult. For the good of all, we ask that the event begin and end with peace. Like last year, we have approved specific media reps to join us, and SCHH Productions is returning this year to continue filming for the documentary, "Remaining Native."

Some run with Ku, some walk. Some complete the entire odyssey; others give what endurance they can. It's not a competitive race. 4WD vehicles can follow along. The conditions are primitive, no services. Participants will need to bring their own support crew, camping equipment, food and drinks. No pets, livestock, or fires.

Remembrance Run 2 is funded by a Dreamstarter grant, awarded to Ku in partnership with Sierra Endurance Sports, by Running Strong for American Indian Youth. Thank you Billy and Pat Mills for your generous support! Stewart Indian Museum and the Nevada Indian Commission are hosting the gathering at journeys end. For more information, please visit the event page on Facebook: Remembrance Run 2022.
